

NATIONAL SKILLS COALITION

Every worker. Every industry.
A strong economy.

Tackling the Care Workforce Challenge: Practical Opportunities for Workforce Development Leaders

Amanda Bergson-Shilcock
November 18, 2025

Today's agenda

- Welcome and overview
- Conversation with panelists
- Q&A

We thank our Care Workforce Advisory Council for their insight in developing these ideas

➤ View the full report

<https://nationalskillscoalition.org/resource/publications/making-care-jobs-good-jobs/>

Care Workforce Advisory Council members

- Helen Adeosun, CEO and Founder of CareAcademy
- Teresa Bello, Pre-K Teacher at PS 185, United Federation of Teachers
- Lelaine Bigelow, Executive Director of the Georgetown Center on Poverty and Inequality
- Daniel Bustillo, Deputy Executive Director for 1199SEIU Training and Employment Funds
- Tracey Carey, Executive Director of Midwest Urban Strategies
- Kate Connor, Professor at Harry S Truman College (City Colleges of Chicago)
- Kevin Coughlin, Policy Initiatives Advisor at the Wisconsin Department of Health Services
- Corinne Eldridge, President and CEO of Center for Caregiver Advancement
- Pronita Gupta, Senior Fellow at The Workshop Project (Economic Opportunity Funders)
- Mary Harrill, Senior Director for Higher Education at the National Association for the Education of Young Children

Continued...

Care Workforce Advisory Council members (continued)

- Nicole Howell, Director of Direct Care Workforce Development at the National Council on Aging
- Nicole Jorwic, Chief Program Officer at Caring Across Generations
- Michelle Rafferty, Chief Program Officer at National Fund for Workforce Solutions
- Kezia Scales, Vice President of Research and Evaluation at PHI
- Adrienne Smith, President and CEO of New Mexico Caregivers Coalition
- Kevin Smith, CEO of Best of Care, Inc
- Nicole Sohn, Co-Founder of Journey Discovery Center
- Robyn Stone, Senior Vice President of Research at LeadingAge
- Van Ton-Quinlivan, CEO of Futuro Health

In addition, NSC acknowledges the contributions of Indivar Dutta-Gupta, Shawn Fremstad, and Robert Espinoza, who were integral to the early stages of this project.

Who are care workers?

Care workforce demographics

	Direct care workers	Early childhood education and care workers
Women	85%	94%
People of color	64%	49%
Below poverty line	13%	13%
Receiving public assistance	49%	43%

Sources: PHI Workforce Data Center, national data. www.phinational.org/policy-research/workforce-data-center and Brooke LePage, “The Child Care and Early Learning Workforce Is Underpaid and Women are Paying the Price,” National Women’s Law Center, May 2023, <https://nwlc.org/wp-content/uploads/2023/05/child-care-workers-5.25.23v3.pdf>

Why is now
the right time
for workforce
leaders to join the care work
conversation?

What practices can workforce leaders implement?

Workforce leaders can implement these recommended practices

- Ensure that care workers are directly informing workforce strategy and policy
- Convene partners to facilitate collaboration and improve pathways into care jobs
- Analyze existing data to better understand how care workforce issues currently show up in in your organization or agency
- Engage with state agency leaders in the care sector
- Gather input from care workers about how technology is shaping their training and employment experiences

More details in the full report: Making Care Jobs Good Jobs.

What policies should workforce
leaders help to advocate for?

Workforce leaders can advocate for these recommended public policies

- Advocate for increased reimbursement rates for care workers
- Support the modernization of training requirements and credentials for care workers
- Use states' efforts to establish credential quality frameworks to draw attention to care workforce wages
- Encourage the creation of new on-ramps into the care workforce field for potential workers

Continued...

Recommended policies (continued)

- Use discretionary funds to thoughtfully incentivize employers to strengthen care job quality
- Take advantage of flexibility in federal funding to run demonstration projects to improve workers' economic stability
- Participate in research that documents the ROI of care workforce strategies

More details in the full report: Making Care Jobs Good Jobs.

Let's dive into the conversation...

Tackling the Care Workforce Challenge: Practical Opportunities for Workforce Development Leaders

Amanda Bergson-Shilcock, Senior Fellow, National Skills Coalition

Kezia Scales, VP of Research and Evaluation, PHI

Ana De Hoyos O'Connor, Professor, San Antonio College

Nicole Howell, Director of Direct Care Workforce Development, National Council on Aging